

InterPARES Trust and the Association of Israeli Archivists are pleased to invite you to an International Symposium on

Working with Digital Records: Studies in Archival Theory and Practice

Tuesday, June 19, 2018

Conference Hall, Van Leer Institute, 43 Jabotinsky Street, Jerusalem

9:15 –10:00 Opening Remarks

Welcome

David Amitai, Director of Yad Ya'ari Archive, Israel
Chairperson, Association of Israeli Archivists

“Overview of the InterPARES Research”

Luciana Duranti, School of Library, Archival and Information Studies,
University of British Columbia, Canada
Project Director, InterPARES Trust

10:00-11:30 First Session – Preservation of Trust

Chairperson: Lluís Esteve Casellas i Serra, Records Management and Archives, Girona Municipality

PaaST: Preservation as a Service for Trust

Giovanni Michetti, Department of Document Studies, Linguistics, Philology and Geography, Sapienza University of Rome, Italy

Preservation of Digitally Signed and Sealed Records by the Use of Blockchain

Hrvoje Stančić, Department of Information and Communication Sciences,
University of Zagreb, Croatia
Director – Team Europe, InterPARES Trust

Cloud Adoption and the Records Professional: Do Cloud Contracts Support Records Management Needs?

Corinne Rogers, School of Library, Archival and Information Studies, University of British Columbia, Canada
Project Coordinator, InterPARES Trust (2013-2019)

11:30-12:00 Coffee Break

12:00-13:00 Second Session – Appraisal and Archiving the Web

Chairperson: Masha Zolotarevsky Baer, Research and Documentation Center, Yad Tabenkin

The Promise of Web Archiving in Belgium

Sébastien Soyez, Head of Works and Archivist at the State Archives of Belgium and Friedel Geeraert, Researcher at the State Archives and Royal Library of Belgium

Retention and Disposition Processes on an Internet Website of the Government of Israel: The Ministry of Foreign Affairs as a Case Study

Silvia Schenkolewski-Kroll, Department of Information Science, Bar Ilan University, Israel and Assaf Tractinsky, Head of Knowledge Management, Israel State Archives

13:00-14:00 Lunch

14:00-15:30 Third Session – Citizen and Government Engagement

Chairperson: Dafna Raban, Faculty of Management, University of Haifa

Across the Spectrum: The Role of Records and Record-Keeping in Citizen Engagement

Jenny Bunn, Department of Information Studies, University College London, UK

Open Government: Open Data

Elizabeth Shepherd, Department of Information Studies, University College London, UK

Playing Against the House: Social Media and Trust in Local Government

Lois Evans, PhD Candidate at the University of British Columbia, Canada
Working group chair for the Canadian General Standards Board's Electronic Records as Documentary Evidence Standard

15:30-16:00 Coffee Break

16:00-17:30 Fourth Session – Digital Records: Policies, Trustworthiness and Metadata

Chairperson: Hrvoje Stančić Department of Information and Communication Sciences, University of Zagreb

Electronic Services between Public Administrations: Some Recommendations for Design and Policies Based on the Case Study of Girona City Council

Lluís Esteve Casellas i Serra, Head of Section, Administrator of Data Security, Records Management and Archives, Girona Municipality, Catalonia

Certification of Trustworthy Digital Records to Support the Audit Process in South Africa

Mpho Ngoepe, Department of Information Science, University of South Africa, South Africa

The Ideal, the Real, and the Way Forward: Archival Metadata in the Contemporary Distributed Environment

Joseph T. Tennis, Information School, University of Washington USA

Closing Remarks: Assaf Tractinsky, Head of Knowledge Management, Israel State Archives

The cost of the symposium is 140 NIS or 70 NIS for students with a valid student card.

If there is enough demand, there will be a bus to Jerusalem from Savidor Central train station, Tel Aviv at 8:15.

The bus will return to Tel Aviv at the end of the conference.

For conference registration please click here